Eighteenth annual commencement exercises of the Smithsonian Business college of this city were held Thursday night at the Methodist church on Twenty-fourth street. The edifice was crowded to its utmost capacity by friends of those graduating and the decorations, which were of a patriotic nature, were very prettily arranged. Forty-two graduates received diplomas from President J. A. Smith.

The Jolly Bachelors' club gave a fine ball at Brigham Wednesday night. A number of automobiles full of jolly people arrived there and a good lively time was on. Several went in carriages also. The evening was cool and dancing was pleasant. All attending had a good time. It was a program dance, a good crowd was present and they danced until 1 a. m.

HOME CULTURE CLUB.
Mrs. Fitzgerald entertained the members of the Home Culture club at their last meeting. The lives and works of American authors, including Will Carleton, Troutwood Moore, Francis Marion Crawford, E. P. Rowe and others were subjects of interesting discussions. Following the program, plans for the next year's work were considered.

The club will meet on June 3 at the home of Mrs. T. D. Johnson, and a full attendance is requested.

RUSTIC PARTY.

The Sophomores of the High school will give a "Rustic Party" Wednesday evening at eight o'clock. Old-fashioned dances and games will be in order after the candy pull. Ice cream will be served at midnight, when a short program will be rendered. The decorations will be truly rustic, and the Sophomores will appear in costumes.

The affair will be an exclusive one, as none but the Sophomores and the faculty are invited.

EXPRESSION OF GRATITUDE.

The members of the Martha Society have voted thanks to Superintendent Briggs of the State School for the Deaf and Blind, for the courtesies shown them when they visited the institution. The ladies were escorted through the various departments of the school, where the work was demonstrated, after which luncheon was served.

An expression of gratitude is also extended to the ladies of the liberal association in making the bridge tea given at the Weber Club parlors, a decided success.

LILAC LUNCHEON.

Mrs. A. A. McBride was hostess at a lilac luncheon on Tuesday afternoon in compliment to Miss Florence Hirst and Miss Genevieve Nicholson. The dining room was beautiful with masses of lilacs. A large cut glass bowl of lilacs formed the centerpiece, and the place cards were in white and gold and were tied to a small bouquet of lilacs. Mrs. McBride was assisted by Mrs. William Jeffers and covers were laid for fourteen guests. Miss Hirst will give a supper, Portland, Ore., to spend the summer, and Miss Nicholson will leave for her home in southern Indiana, after spending the past year in Ogden with her aunt, Mrs. J. S. Gee.

DANCING PARTY.

The Carmon gave a successful dancing party Thursday evening at the Royal Academy. The purpose for which the ball was given was to raise sufficient funds to defray the expense of a delegate to the National Carmon convention which will be held in Atlanta, Ga., in September of this year. Mr. West, the chief carman of the local fire department, is the man selected as delegate.

The officers of the organization are: Chief Carman A. H. West, vice chief carman, Frank Browning; recording secretary, S. Hudson, and financial secretary, Hans Jorgensen.

FAMILY REUNION.

Thursday night, an enjoyable family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Watson, the occasion being in the nature of a farewell to their son, John, who leaves shortly on a mission to Great Britain. Every member of the family and a few intimate friends were present. The dining room was decorated with lilacs in profusion, and here all were seated to a splendid supper.

The evening was spent in games interspersed with music, the solos of Miss Beattie being especially appreciated.

DEGREE OF HONOR.

The Past Chiefs Society met at the cozy home of Mrs. Nannie Owens, Thursday afternoon. The home was made enchanting with beautiful potted plants and floral decorations. The entertainment afforded by beautifully colored postal cards gave the guests an excellent idea of life in the Philippine Islands and China, and of sailor and soldier life. The mode of living in many foreign countries and large cities was also realistically illustrated. The hostess served a most delicious luncheon at 5:30 o'clock and was greatly surprised when presented with a beautiful souvenir spoon in appreciation of her kindness and good work for the society. The ladies were seated at a late hour, unanimous in the assertion that the afternoon had been one of profit and pleasure, and all delighted with the advancement and progress of the Degree of Honor.

FACULTY BANQUET.
Following their class exercises at the Fifth ward hall, Tuesday evening, the seniors of the Weber Academy were hosts at an elaborate banquet, given at the academy, in honor of the faculty. The banquet hall was attractively decorated in the class colors, pale blue and white. Dancing was the concluding feature of the evening, excellent music being furnished by the Weber Academy orchestra.

The guests included Principal W. M. McKendrick and wife, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Ridges, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Davis, Mrs. D. O. McKay, Mrs. D. Ray Shurtliff, Misses Ivy Cleghorn, Eva Farr, Charlotte Wetzel, Pearl Cragson, Zina Larkin, Messrs. Alva Hanson, Ren E. Harker, Moroni Olsen, Grant Brown.

HOME CULTURE CLUB.

The members of the Home Culture club held their last meeting at the home of Mrs. Fitzgerald on Grant avenue. The club was given up to the personnel of different American authors and enough of their work to show their aims, ideals and methods of accomplishment. Will Carleton, Troutwood Moore, Frances Marion Crawford, E. P. Roe and others were discussed in a way indicative of hard study and close thought. A short business meeting followed the lesson and plans were discussed for the next year's work. The club will meet again on June 3rd, at the home of Mrs. T. D. Johnson, and a full attendance is requested.

CLASSIC STAFF BANQUET.

Last evening the members of the Classic staff celebrated the close of a most successful year with a banquet at the Potter cafe. The tables were laid for sixty guests and all members of the editorial and business staffs, the teachers in the English department of the High school and a few friends present will remember the affair as one of the most pleasant of the year.

Principal J. O. Cross presided as toastmaster. In a few well chosen words he congratulated the members of the staff upon their excellent and efficient work during the past year and expressed his confidence in the continued prosperity and success of the High school journal.

Miss Edgewood related in a charming manner some of the woes of the editor, and Mr. Sullivan detailed in a very humorous way a few of the trials that beset the business manager.

The following toasts were given: "The Woes of the Editor-in-Chief," Dorothy Bigelow.

"Athletics," Hays Mattson.

"Society," Mary Abbott.

"The Old Debt," Stephen Keogh.

"Accounts," Rosa Burgan.

"The Trials of the Business Manager," Dan Sullivan.

CANTATA "LAZARUS."

One of the most enjoyable as well as instructive events of the year was the production of the great oratorio, "Lazarus," in explanatory form. Sunday afternoon, by the Ogden Tabernacle choir, under the able direction of Prof. Jos. Ballantyne, assisted by the following soloists: Miss Myrtle Ballinger, Miss Maud Belpash, Miss Ruby Goldes and Mr. Caleb Farriott. Explanatory remarks and readings were given by Mrs. Belle Solomon Ross.

The choir did beautiful work. The shading and dynamics were given with an authority which carried conviction and were beautifully brought out. Conductor Ballantyne handles this large body of vocalists as if one and they respond with a precision that indicates his complete mastery over his fine body of singers.

The soloists did splendid work throughout and deserve special commendation for many of the themes are extremely difficult, not only to sing, but are characterized by such

BRIDGE TEA.

Mrs. William Eccles and Mrs. A. W. Walker, assisted by Mrs. H. H. Spencer, entertained at a large and brilliant affair Tuesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Eccles, on Jefferson avenue. The decorations were beautiful in every detail. The hall was resplendent in red, the beams overhead being studded with red incandescent lights. In the dining room, pink and white was the color scheme, a white cloth of matchless Japanese brocade being used on the table, which had for its centerpiece an elegant cut glass bowl filled with pink and white carnations.

Seventeen tables were filled with card players, and here a hundred and bridge were the games. Prizes were won by Mrs. F. J. Kiesel, Mrs. Thomas Fitzgerald, Mrs. P. M. Nye and Mrs. Smith. At the tea which followed, Mrs. J. C. Armstrong, Mrs. Harold Peery, Miss Frances Joyce and Mrs. LeRoy Eccles poured out the Misses Fawn and Alberta Wright, Celia Eccles and Beatrice Brewer assisted the hostesses in serving refreshments.

CHILD CULTURE CLUB.

The Child Culture club met at the home of Mrs. Minnie Smith Tuesday afternoon. Many reports of conditions which exist in the industrial school women, not alone from Ogden, but from the different towns and cities in the state, and as it is essentially a part of the work of the club to protect the interests of all children, it was decided to appoint a committee to arrange for a public meeting, and to gather information for and against the institution. Mrs. Barrows and Mrs. Hilliard of the Child Culture club, and Mrs. Bishop of the Historical club, were appointed as the committee to represent Ogden. The Utah Federation of Women's clubs, with Mrs. McMahon of Salt Lake as chairman, have committees from each club to assist in the investigation.

The program for the afternoon was a lecture by Dr. Anna Reis on the "Cause and Cure of Tuberculosis," which was most interesting and instructive. The social hour followed adjournment, when the hostess, assisted ed by her daughters, served a most delectable lunch.

The guests of the afternoon were Mrs. Browning, Mrs. Hughes, Mrs. Henry and Mrs. Bishop.

The next meeting will be the last one of the club year and all members are urged to be present to finish the year's work.

extremes in emotional activity that requires perfect voice and emotional control.

Mrs. Ross gave the explanations and read the text. This feature was attractive and instructive and did much to augment the enjoyment.

Ogden people should appreciate such opportunities as were given them Sunday, to hear a great choir in the master works of the great composers.

DOMESTIC ARTS EXHIBITS.

At the Domestic Arts department of the Weber State academy, Thursday night, a prize of $25 in gold was awarded Miss Milla Barker of North Ogden, for the best dress made in the second year work. The prize was donated by Dr. J. J. Tobias, chief chancellor of the Chicago Law school, and the judges, Mrs. Furchi, Miss Woolley and Miss Tyne. The latter two ladies are in charge of the Kelsie Tailoring school of this city, and their home is in Logan.

The prize-winning dress was made entirely by hand and consisted of some 36 yards of insertion, the body being of white wash chiffon. Two other students receiving favorable mention were the Misses Pearl Shaw and Lulu Marriot.

In the four-year work department, Miss Eva Farr, as first supervisor, reported that sixty-five fancy aprons were made, and thirty fancy dresses were the result of the classes' efforts. A large cabinet of fancy work has been exhibited at the arts department during the past week, and was admired by more than 1,500 people who have visited the academy in the past two days. The exhibit has been generally admitted to be the best ever shown in this city.

The cabinet contained several excellent specimens of drawn work, bat-tenberg point lace, tonnerie lace, and Mount Melick and Kensington work, with sixty suits of underclothing, besides several model books.

The second, third and fourth year work is under the direction of Miss Zina Larkin, who is head of the department. Her classes showed some pretty specimens of houses, dresses, dressing saques, aprons, thirty sets of table linen and French hemmed and monogrammed fancy work of all kinds. The display was most beautiful, and was admired by hundreds of ladies visiting the department.

There are at present one hundred twenty-five girls registered in the Domestic Arts department of the academy.

More than fifteen hundred people visited the exhibit during the day.
